

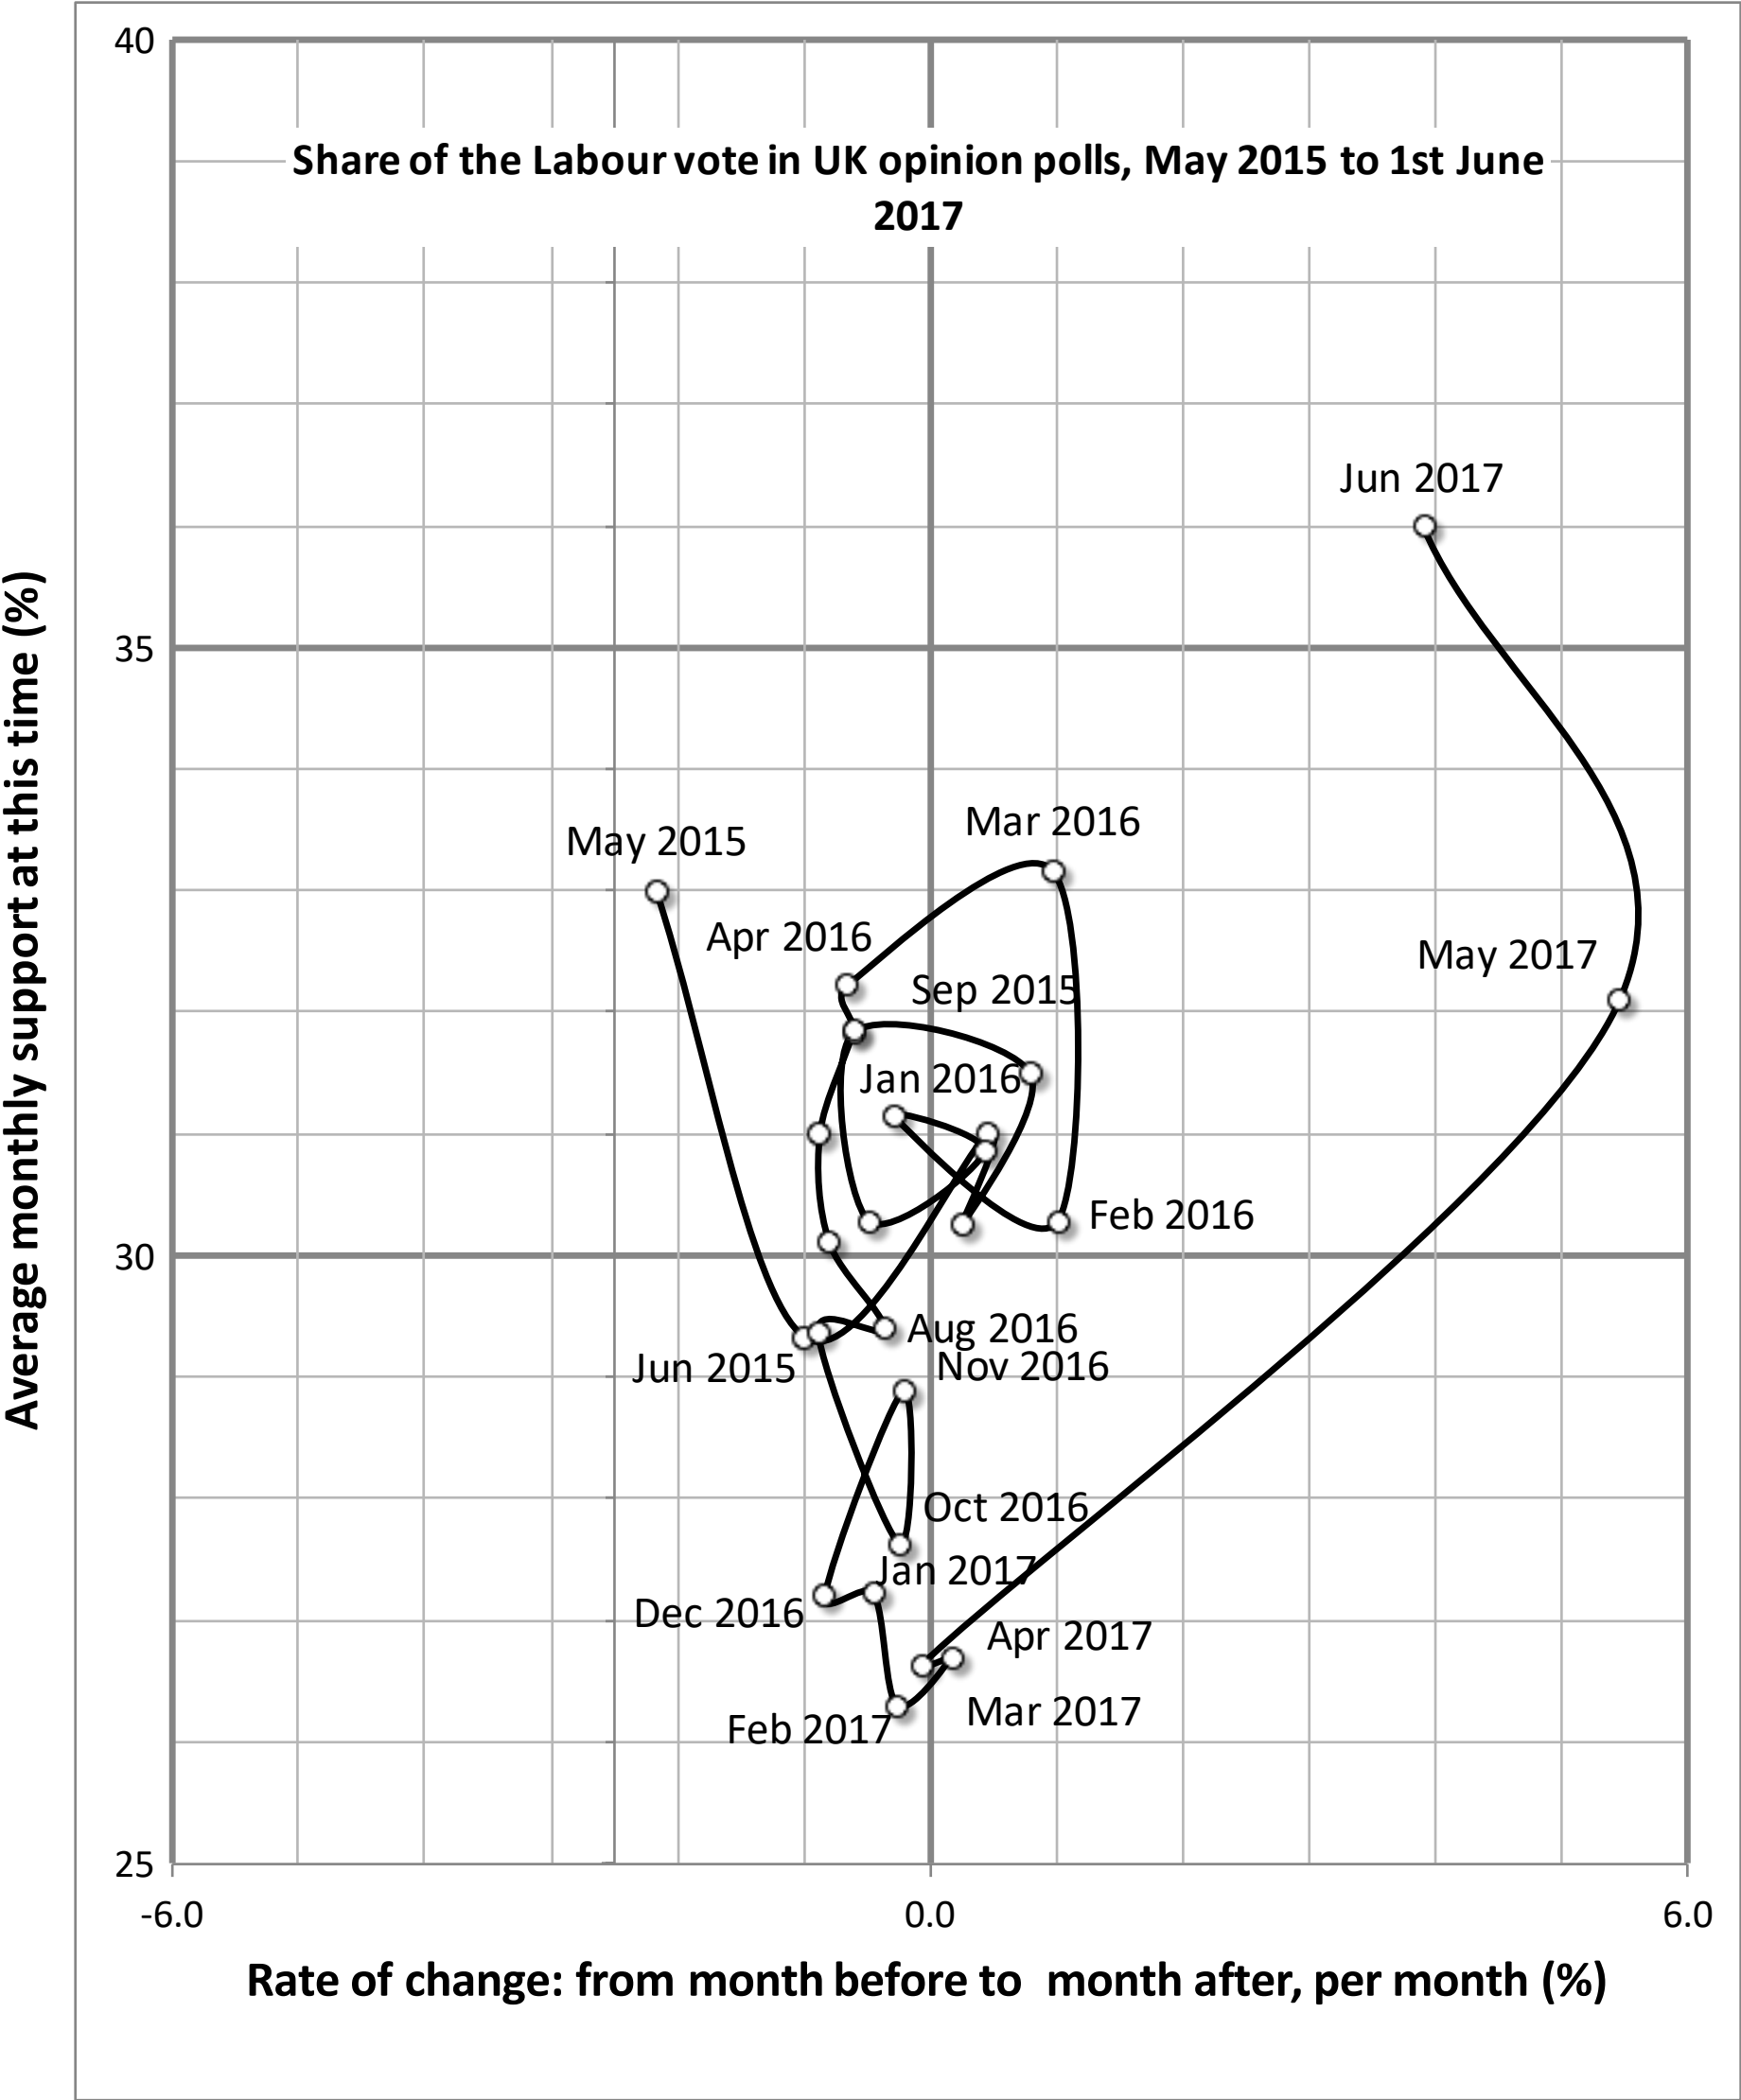

Figure 2.12.3: Labour vote in UK opinion polls, May 2015 to 1st June 2017

Source: Dorling, D. (2017) The Election Result in Three Graphs, Public Sector Focus, July/August 2017, pp.66-67

The figures along the Y axis: 25,30, 35 and 40 are the support for the Labour Party in the average opinion polls of the month shown.

The figures along the x axis, -6.0, 0.0 and 6.0 are the average change in the polling of Labour within that month (fall or rise in. Its share often vote in the opinion polls).

For June 2017 only the figure for the 1st of June is shown. Underlying data from:
<http://ukpollingreport.co.uk/voting-intention-2> first accessed April 26th 2016, last accessed in early June 2017.